

About Us

Welcome to GaddiMitra

At GaddiMitra, we believe that a simple connection can make a big difference.

Every day, people face situations where they need to contact a vehicle owner—whether it's a vehicle blocking the way, an emergency on the road, or an accident where immediate communication is critical. Unfortunately, there is often no safe and reliable way to reach the right person at the right time.

That's why we created GaddiMitra.

GaddiMitra is a smart QR-based vehicle contact platform designed to bridge the communication gap between vehicle owners and the public while protecting user privacy. By placing a unique GaddiMitra QR sticker on a vehicle, anyone can quickly connect with the owner during important situations without exposing personal information.

Our Mission

Our mission is to make roads safer, communication faster, and assistance more accessible through simple technology.

We aim to create a future where every vehicle can be reached in emergencies, parking-related situations, and other critical moments with just a single scan.

What We Offer

- Smart QR stickers for vehicles
- Instant vehicle owner notifications
- Emergency contact access
- Parking issue alerts
- Privacy-focused communication
- Secure and easy-to-use technology

Why GaddiMitra?

We understand that privacy and security are essential. That's why our platform is designed to help people connect when necessary without publicly displaying sensitive personal information.

Whether it's helping someone move a wrongly parked vehicle or enabling a bystander to notify family members during an emergency, GaddiMitra is built to make communication simple, secure, and effective.

Our Vision

We envision a safer and more connected transportation ecosystem across India, where technology helps people support one another during everyday challenges and emergencies.

Starting from Bihar and expanding across the country, GaddiMitra is committed to building solutions that bring convenience, safety, and peace of mind to every vehicle owner.

Our Promise

Every scan has a purpose. Every connection matters. Every second can make a difference.

GaddiMitra – Scan. Connect. Help.
